ANNUAL BANQUET OF THE LAWYERS

BAR ASSOCIATION GATHERS AT BOARDS.

Federal Judge Woodruff Is Guest of Honor—Jurists and Attorneys Respond to Toasts—Quartet Entertains.

The Hawaiian Bar Association extended its formal welcome to Federal Judge George Woodruff Saturday evening at the annual dinner of the association at the Young Hotel. United States District Attorney Breckons acted as toastmaster and his reference to the judge and attorneys present called forth many a laugh.

The toasts included "President of the United States," to which response was voiced by Judge De Bolt; "The Governor of the Territory of Hawaii," to which Deputy Attorney General Andrews responded; "The Bench," Judge Sanford B. Dole responding, and reading of a lengthy paper by Frank Thompson, written by James Fitch. George A. Davis responded to the toast, "The Bar Association." In the absence of W. A. Kinney, Judge Robinson read a paper on the Circuit Court, and the annual paper was read by Attorney Clarence Olson.

Before the first call for a response as toastmaster, Mr. Breckons said that he had been advised to begin the speechmaking early, so that it would be concluded before Sunday. In responding to the toast to the President, Judge De Bolt sketched the career of President Taft from the time of his election to the bench in Ohio until he was given his great opportunity of demonstrating his particular fitness for administrative work by being sent to the Philippines. Judge De Bolt said that in the course of a year Taft, as Governor of the Philippines, had opened a way to the solution of the problem that had baffled the Spanish government for centuries. He said that Taft's names would be linked with the fortunes of the Philippine Islands.

Advice for Lawyers: Judge Sanford B. Dole had a few words of advice to the lawyers in the course of his response to the toast of "The Bench." He declared that an experienced lawyer knows when he is beaten in court, and that when a counsel continues to consume the time of the court after he knows that he is beaten, it is not viewed with commendation by the judge before whom the case is being tried. Continuing Judge Dole said: "I suppose there is an attractiveness to lawyers in a pugilistic contest. There is a rather close analogy between court rules and Marquis of Queensbury. Of course, many of us go to the match because we are fond of the game, because they are the rules of fair play."

Judge Dole referred to the members of the Supreme Court of Hawaii and spoke feelingly of those that have passed away. He concluded his remarks by suggesting that an association of judges be formed in Hawaii, and remarked that they might have an annual dinner at which the lawyers would be the guests.

One of the features of the evening was the Bar Association quartet, composed of F. E. Thompson, Judge Lindsay, Judge Robinson and C. E. Olmop. One of the songs had reference to the new deputy Attorney General, Lorin Andrews, and was as follows:

In days of old,
When feet got cold,
And CARTER had his away,
A lawyer bold, with lots of—
Went merrily away,
Sang merrily this lay:
"I'll conquer Shanghai now,"
"I'll start to raise a row."
And ere he quit,
He bravely hit,
And kept the vow he swore.
Then off he went,
On merrily bent—
And now he's back once more.

Among those present were United States District Attorney R. W. Breckons, toastmaster; Judge Sanford B. Dole, Justice A. Perry, W. O. Smith, Judge Andrade, Deputy Attorney General Lorin Andrews, Assistant U. S. District Attorney W. T. Rawlins, former Judge C. F. Peterson, Judge J. T. De Bolt, Judge Robinson, Judge Lindsay, C. E. Olmop, Robbins Anderson, E. M. Watson, L. Warren, George A. Davis.

HAD NOTHING TO SAY.

The stranger had been compelled to linger twenty-four hours within the gates.
"Well," queried the landlord of the village inn, as the stranger was setting his bill, "what do you think of our place as a summer resort?"
"I'd hate to tell you," answered the stranger, as he picked up his grip. "Even what I think of it as a last resort would not look well in print."

JAPAN WANTS ITS RIGHTS RECOGNIZED

AND WILL PROMISE TO KEEP ITS PEOPLE OUT.

Ambassador O'Brien and President Taft Have a Long Conference Over Situation Between Japan and America.

BEVERLY, Mass., Aug. 11.—President Taft and Thomas G. O'Brien, United States Ambassador at Tokyo, had a two-hour interview at the Taft cottage this afternoon. Fresh from Tokyo, Ambassador O'Brien outlined in detail the situation in Japan as it appears to him. He reports an extremely friendly attitude toward the United States by Japan. The interview between the President and the Ambassador, while of a general nature, had particular reference to the new treaty of commerce and friendship between the two nations to take effect on the expiration of the present treaty in 1911.

After a brief trip to Europe Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien will return to the United States for a final conference with either the President or Secretary Knox, both returning to Tokyo. Mr. O'Brien will retain his post as long as Taft is President. He is credited with being as close to the throne as any ambassador in Japan.

Takihira to Stay in Japan.—"Baron Takihira will not return to the United States," says O'Brien. The general understanding in diplomatic circles is that he is to be displaced by an absolute stranger to America. This movement will be a part of Tokyo diplomacy, which aims to have a representative at Washington who is in close touch with his home government and the spirit of the people and who will not be unconsciously influenced by long association with American officials.

An intimation has already been received that Japan will insist upon the most favored nation clause in the new treaty and on a liberal interpretation of the clause thereafter. That is to say, Japan will agree to give up to the "gentlemen's agreement" entered into between former Ambassador Aoki and former Secretary of State Root, whereby the empire is to prevent emigration to the United States as much as possible. But where any Japanese subjects should desire to claim the benefits of American citizenship, Japan will insist, under the most favored nation clause, on the same rights in this subject for Japanese citizens as are given to the citizens or subjects of France, Germany, Italy, England, etc.

It may be said, however, that there is no belief on the part of the United States that Japan will insist upon this point except for the securing of more favorable consideration to other details of the proposed convention. It can be declared as a certainty that the United States will never agree to confer citizenship upon the Japanese, but on the other hand it is altogether probable that President Taft will take some steps to insure the Japanese the same privileges that are granted to other aliens residing within our borders.

Wants to Have Authority. And with this idea in view, the President may urge Congress in his next annual message to enact such legislation as will place in the hands of the Federal Executive the means of enforcing the treaty rights of such aliens in the courts of the Federal government.

RACE WITH THE TARIFF FAILS.

Big Steamers Fail to Arrive in Time to Save Extra Duty.

New York, August 5.—Nearly twenty transatlantic steamships, which have been heading their utmost efforts in response to orders by wireless to reach New York before the new tariff law went into effect, lost the race at 4:30 this afternoon, when the Custom-house closed and the last payment of duty under the old law was registered. Importers who have merchandise on these boats will be losers to the extent of between $100,000 and $200,000.

The vessel which lost by the narrow margin was the Hamburg-American liner Pennsylvania, with a cargo of wines and merchandise which must pay $20,000 extra duty under the new law. Fast scout tugs had been out all day waiting the big liner's arrival with orders to take off her captain and hurry him to the Custom-house with the ship's manifest. But when 4:30 o'clock came the Pennsylvania was fifty miles from port.

HER OBJECTION.

Rodrick—"Why doesn't Walton take his wife on some of his trout-fishing expeditions?"
Van Albert—"Oh, she is too tender-hearted to be an angler."
Rodrick—"But she doesn't have to use live bait. She could use artificial flies."
Van Albert—"Yes, but she said she couldn't bear to 'whip the stream.'"

MAUI NAMES ITS COMMITTEES

FOR ENTERTAINMENT OF CONGRESSIONAL VISITORS

Wailuku Improvement Association Sets Ball Rolling—Maui People Think That More Time Should Be Allowed Them.

(Special to the Bulletin.)
WAILUKU, MAUI, Aug. 21.—The Wailuku Improvement Association at the request of Hon. H. P. Baldwin held a public meeting Thursday evening at the Wailuku Town Hall for the purpose of selecting committees to receive the Congressional Party who are expected on Maui Sunday September 12. The citizens were asked to join in the meeting and a goodly number rallied to the call.

Lahaina sent a special delegation to the meeting in the persons of J. E. Gannon, A. H. Haywood and V. C. Schoenberg. Puanene also sent Messrs. Wm. Searby and Prescott to represent them at the meeting.

Chairman Keola called the meeting to order at 8 o'clock. Mr. Chas. Wilcox acted as secretary in place of Mr. D. H. Case. The letters from the Honolulu entertainment committee to Hon. H. P. Baldwin and Hon. R. J. K. Nawahine were read. Mr. Nawahine explained that he only received the letter from Honolulu on the 14th, and therefore last Wednesday was the earliest time for him to make a reply thereto.

On motion the following were unanimously appointed as a general committee of arrangements to arrange for the reception of the visitors:
For Wailuku: H. B. Penhallow, Temp. Chairman; W. T. Robinson, Selden B. Kingsbury, A. N. Kepokai, C. Wilcox, J. H. Kunewa, T. B. Lyons, R. J. K. Nawahine, M. P. Waiwale, D. H. Case, W. A. McKay, J. W. Kalua, R. A. Wadsworth, W. E. Saffery, W. E. Bal, Wm. Ault, R. E. Dodge, C. D. Lufkin, C. E. Copeland, H. M. Coke, J. L. Coke, D. H. Davis, E. H. Hart, J. Garcia, Jas. N. K. Keola.

For Kahului and Puanene: H. P. Baldwin, Temp. Chairman; J. N. S. Williams, Wm. Searby, Wm. Walsh, Jno. Makahio, Ferd. Hons, J. Walsh, T. A. Waltrip.

For Makawae: W. F. Poque, Temp. Chairman; C. D. Lindsay, L. von Tempeky, Ed. Norton, A. F. Tavares, W. O. Aiken, P. N. Kahokouana, F. P. Rosecrans, J. Kalino, Rev. Turner, Chas. Copp.

For Hana: W. F. Hala, Temp. Chairman; J. W. Kawaakou, J. Chalmers, M. H. Reuter, G. O. Cooper, R. H. Anderson, Levi L. Joseph.

On motion of Judge Kingsbury, Secretary Wilcox was instructed to inform committees not present of their appointment.
Of motion of Senator W. T. Robinson the executive committee of the chairman of each district will meet in Wailuku Town Hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock to make arrangements. Maui committees will do their utmost to entertain the visiting Congressmen, but all agreed to the fact that the stay on Maui, only two days, Sunday and Monday, was hardly time enough to allow them to inspect our natural wonders and our leading industries: Naliuku rubber plantations, Halekalan, the Breakwater, and Puanene Mill. For Maui too would like to be on the map as MAUI.
